

Taking it to the Streets

StreetDoctor

Are you an Indigenous Australian and need to see a doctor?

Do you want a free service?

Then come along to the FREE StreetDoctor - a Mobile Health Service where a doctor, nurse and Indigenous Outreach Worker are on board waiting to see you!

Available every Wednesday

9.30am to 12.30pm

Karnany Aboriginal Centre,

25 Spring Park Road,

Midland.

This service has been established to support the local Indigenous community.

We're here to help!

For further information, please call Perth Primary Care Network on 9376 9200